Marg McCuaig-Boyd

Marg McCuaig-Boyd represents the northern Alberta riding of Dunvegan-Central Peace-Notley. A long-time resident of the Peace Country, she was appointed Minister of Energy by Premier Notley in May 2015.

Before being elected to public office, Marg was a teacher and administrator with the Peace River School Division for more than 20 years. She left public education to take an executive position as vice president at the Fairview Campus of Grande Prairie Regional College. Marg left the college in June 2013 to start a consulting company to support small- and medium-sized businesses.

Marg graduated from the University of Alberta with a Bachelor’s Degree in education, and holds a Master’s Degree in administration and leadership from San Diego State University.

Marg and her husband, Dan, live on a farm in the Fairview area. They have two adult children, Jocelyn and Tyson
